

Dr. Gheorghe Borcean was born on August 30, 1953.

He graduated the Medical University in Timisoara in 1978.

During 1978-1981 he was a probation doctor at the Municipal Hospital in Caransebes.

In 1984 he was a resident doctor at Floreasca Hospital in Bucharest.

In 1989 he became a specialist surgeon at the Municipal Hospital in Caransebes.

Between 1989-2012 he was the manager of the Municipal Hospital in Caransebes.

In 1991 he became consultant physician in general surgery.

In 2005 he received a second specialization in orthopedics.

In 2000 he completed his doctorate in medicine at the Medical University in Timisoara.

In 2007 he obtained a specialization in forensic medicine.

In 1995 he acquired his sanitary management competence.

In 2016, he became Associate Professor of the Medical University in Timisoara

Between 1998-2015 he was Vice-President of the Romanian College of Physicians.

Since 2015 he has been elected as President of the Romanian College of Physicians.